

Hybrid Drilling and Production Concepts for the East Coast Offshore by

John Fitzpatrick

The presentation will begin by describing a Steel (hybrid) GBS concept which was developed, and chosen as the preferred option, for the West Bonne Bay prospect on the Grand Banks. The presentation will then introduce two other Drilling/Production concepts including a Semi-Rigid Floating concept capable of withstanding iceberg loadings.